be in favour of a prohibition of the sale of intoxicating liquors in their district, and against the issue of licenses therefor.

(2) When a requisition is presented, accompanied by the sum of two hundred dollars to defray the expenses of the poll hereinafter specified, to any Commissioner from a number of the electors of any district (estimated as near as may be at at least one fifth of the total number of electors of the district, the basis of such estimate being the number of electors who voted at the last election of a Member of the Legislative Assembly) requiring a vote to be taken as to whether or not such license shall issue or be granted therein, it shall be the duty of such Commissioner, upon the receipt of such requisition and the said sum of two hundred dollars to scrutinize the names of the electors attached to such requisition, and being satisfied that the names so attached are those of duly qualified electors within the district, and after the person or persons who have witnessed the signatures to the said requisition shall have sworn before a Justice or a notary public, that he, the said witness, or they, the said witnesses, were present and saw the said electors sign the said requisition; that the said electors signed the said requisition within thirty days of the date of such affidavit; and that the signers constitute one-fifth of the electors of such district (estimated as above), to command the taking of a poll of the said electors, to ascertain whether or not such licenses shall be granted. The Returning Officer shall thereupon give public notice of the taking of such poll in all the newspapers, if any, published within the district, the publication to be continued in at least one number of each of such papers each week for three successive weeks, and also by posting up such notices or copies of the same, at the post offices within such district. You do swear that you have not received any money or other reward, nor have you accepted any promise made to you, directly or indirectly, to induce you to vote at this election, and that you have not before voted at this election, either at this or any other polling station. So help you God.

When any person presents himself for the purpose of voting, the Deputy Returning Officer shall cause the full name, occupation and place of residence of such person to be forthwith entered on the voters' list, and before the vote of such person is polled, shall, if so requested by any qualified voter, administer to him either or both of the above mentioned oaths, and the words, "He has taken oath No. 1" ^{or} _{and} "oath No. 2," as the case may be, shall be written opposite the name of any person so sworn; and in case any person refuses to take such oath or oaths, at such request, he shall not be permitted to vote, and the words, "Refused to take oath No. 1" ^{or} _{and} "oath No. 2," as the case may be, shall be written opposite the name of any person so refusing.

(6) The vote of the electors shall be taken by ballot in the manner provided by "The Canada Temperance Act," and the several clauses thereof under the headings, "The Poll," "Secretary," "Penalties," "Preservation of Peace," "General Provisions," "Prevention of Corrupt Practices," and "Penalties and Punishments Generally," shall be read and construed as part of this Ordinance, except where the same may be inconsistent with any of the provisions herein contained.

(7) Immediately after the close of the poll the Deputy Returning Officer shall, in the presence of the Poll Clerk, if there be one, and such of the electors (of whom there shall not be more than two) as may be present, open the ballot box and proceed as follows:

(a) He shall examine the ballot papers and reject all those on the back of which his initials are not found or on which anything appears by which the voter can be identified;

(b) Take a note of any objection made by any elector present to any ballot paper found in the ballot box and decide on any question arising out of the objection;

(c) Number such objection and place a corresponding number on the back of the ballot paper with the word "allowed" or "disallowed," as the case may be, with his initials ;

(d) Count the "Ayes" and "Noes" from the ballot papers not rejected and make a written statement of the number of votes given for or against the granting of licenses, respectively, and of the number of ballot papers rejected and not counted by him, which statement shall be then signed by him, and such other persons authorized to be present as may desire to sign the same ;

(e) The Deputy Returning Officer shall then certify under his own hand in full words on the voters' list the total number of persons, who have voted at the polling place at which he is appointed, and make up into separate packets :

Which packets, closed up and sealed with his own seal and with the seal of any persons present desiring to affix their seals thereto, and marked on the outside with a memorandum designating their respective contents, shall by the Deputy Returning Officer be transmitted forthwith to the Returning Officer ;

(8) At the time and place fixed for declaring the result of the poll, the Returning Officer shall open the packets containing the statement of votes given for or against the granting of licenses, respectively, and there publicly declare the result.

(9) As soon as possible after the result has been announced, the ballot boxes, packets and returns shall be deposited in the office of the Board.

(10) Objections to any act or proceeding under this section must be made in writing and filed in the office of the Board of License Commissioners, within eight days after the ballot boxes, packets and returns are deposited in the said office; such objections shall be considered and adjudicated upon by the Board at their next regular meeting; the decision of the Board shall be final; and in the event of the objections being maintained and upon the payment of the sum of two hundred dollars by the objector or objectors, they shall have the power to call another poll to be taken on the question whether or not licenses shall be granted. In the event however of the said sum of two hundred dollars not being paid, the poll objected to, even if the objections are sustained, shall remain valid to all intents and purposes and have full force and effect as if no objections had been found.

(11) Nothing in this section shall be construed as permitting any of the proceedings had, or papers filed, or notices required therein, to be vitiated or set aside by reason of any mere want or defect of form, or any irregularity in the drawing up or execution of the same.

(12) The decision of the three-fifths of the electors against the granting of licenses as declared at the poll, shall come into force in the then ensuing license year, beginning on the first day of July, and such prohibition shall continue in full force for such year and any future year until repealed: and each and all of the provisions of this section shall apply to the proceedings to be taken in reference to such repeal.

(13) In case of any such vote being taken as provided in this section, then no new vote, other than that provided for in subsection (10) of this section, shall be taken for a period of three years thereafter.

(14) The expenses for the taking of such vote over and above the sum of two hundred dollars provided to be paid under this section, shall be defrayed out of the General Revenue Fund of the Territories, such expenses to be certified to by the Board of License Commissioners for the district in which the vote has been taken; in the event, however, of the expenses of such vote being less than the two hundred dollars deposited as above the balance thereof remaining after such expenses have been paid shall be returned to the parties depositing the same.

49. Subject to the provisions of this Ordinance as to removals and the transfer of licenses, every license for the sale of liquor shall be held to be a license only to the person therein named, and for the premises therein mentioned, and shall remain valid only as long as such person continues to be the occupant of the said premises and the true owner of the business there carried on.

TRANSFER OF LICENSES.

50. In case any person having lawfully obtained a license under this Ordinance dies before the expiration of his license, or sells, or by operation of law or otherwise assigns his business, or removes from the house or place in respect of which the said license applies, his said license shall, ipso facto, become forfeited, and be absolutely null and void to all intents and purposes whatsoever, unless such person, his assigns or legal representatives, within two months after the death, assignment or removal of or sale by the original holder of such license, obtains a written consent, signed by the Chief Inspector, either for the continuance of the said business, or the transfer of such license to some other person, who, under such transfer may exercise the rights granted by such license, subject to all the duties and obligations of the original holder thereof, in the house or place for which such license was issued, and to which it applies, but in no other house or place.

(1) In every case of transfer of an hotel or wholesale license the person in whose favor any such transfer is to be made shall first produce to the Commissioners a report of the Inspector similar to that mentioned in Sections 27 or 28 (as the case may be) of this Ordinance, and the recommendation required by Section 24 hereof where such recommendation was required for the original applicant.

51. Where a licensee has been legally ejected from any licensed premises, the Commissioners may, notwithstanding the non-production of the license, on the application in writing of the owner of the premises and the proposed new tenant, if they cannot produce the license, grant a special license to such new tenant in such form as they shall think applicable, such special license to be signed by the Chief Inspector; provided always that the Commissioners shall be satisfied that actual value has been received from said owner by said licensee.

52. The Commissioners may, by order, authorize any person they may think entitled to the benefit of any license to carry on the business in the licensed premises for the remainder of the term for which the license was granted, in the same manner as if such license had been formally transferred to such person; (provided proof of value received be given as provided in the next preceding section) in the following cases;

(1) Whenever any person to whom a license has been granted deserts the licensed premises, or refuses or neglects to transfer the license when justly required so to do; or

(2) If, during the currency of any such license, the holder thereof ceases to occupy the premises in respect whereof the license is held, or his tenancy of such premises is determined by effluxion of time, or by notice to quit, or by any other process whatsoever.

53. Where any licensed person is convicted of any offence and in consequence either becomes personally disqualified or has his license forfeited, the Commissioners upon application by, or on behalf of the owner of the premises in respect of which the license was granted (where the owner is not the occupier), and upon being satisfied that such owner was not privy, nor a consenting party to the act of his tenant, and that he has legal power to eject the tenant of such premises, may by order authorize an agent to carry on the business specified in the license relating to such premises until the end of the period for which such license was granted, in the same manner as if such license had been formally transferred to such agent; provided always such owner shall pay as fee for the balance of the term of the license unexpired a proportionate part of the amount required for one year.

54. In case of the marriage of any female being a licensee, the license held by her shall confer on her husband the same privileges, and shall impose on him the same duties, obligations and liabilities as if such license had been granted to him originally: Provided that the Commissioners on application of the husband of any such female licensee, may confirm to him his wife's license for the remainder of the term of the duration thereof, and may grant him a certificate to that effect, which must be signed by the Chief Inspector, such confirmation shall be granted if the Commissioners are satisfied that no objection can be made to the character of the husband, and that he has not forfeited a license within the next preceding three years.

REMOVAL OF LICENSEES.

55. The Chief Inspector may, after order allowing the same by the Commissioners, endorse on any hotel or wholesale license permission to the holder thereof to remove from the house to which his said license applies to another house to be described in the endorsement to be made by the said Inspector on the said license; provided always that the house to which the licensee proposes to remove has all the accommodation required by law, and subject to the requirements of this Ordinance in the case of an original application for the same kind of a license.

(1) Such permission, when the approval of the said Chief Inspector is endorsed on said license, shall authorize the holder of the said license to sell liquors in the house mentioned in the endorsement during the unexpired portion of the term for which the said license was granted, in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as he might do in the premises to which the license originally applied; any bond or security which such holder of a license may have given for any purpose in relation to such license shall apply to the house or place to which removal is authorized; but such permission shall not entitle him to sell at any other than such one place.

56. In all cases provided for in Sections fifty to fifty-five, both inclusive, of transfer, removal or change in a license, application must be made in the same manner as if for an original application for a license. The amount of money to be sent with said application shall be the sum of ten dollars. The Chief Inspector, upon receiving the application from the Officer referred to as appointed by the Lieutenant - Governor - in - Council, shall proceed as is provided in Section twenty, in cases where persons apply at other than the regular time for licenses, and the same additional fees must be paid as are provided in said Section twenty.

58. The Chief Inspector shall came into his possession by a bona fide purchase, and was not adulterated or mixed with any deleterious ingredient by him or any person acting under his authority, and was not then to his knowledge adulterated, and that such substance, matter or thing was not kept for adulterating or mixing with the liquor sold.

INFORMATION AND OTHER PROCEEDINGS.

111. In describing the offences respecting the sale or other disposal of liquor, or the keeping or the consumption of liquor, in any information, summons, conviction, warrant or proceeding under this Ordinance, it shall be sufficient to state the sale, disposal, keeping or consumption of liquor simply, without stating the name or kind of such liquor or the price thereof, or the name of any person to whom it was sold or disposed of, or by whom it was consumed; and it shall not be necessary to state the quantity of liquor so sold, disposed of, kept or consumed, except in the case of offences where the quantity is essential, and then it shall be sufficient to allege the sale or disposal of more or less than such quantity as the case may require, and informations may be in the forms in Schedules L and M.

112. In the event of any variance between the information and the evidence adduced in support thereof, the Justice or Justices may amend or alter such information, and may substitute for the offence charged therein any other offence against the provisions of this Ordinance; but if it appears the defendant has been materially misled by such variance, the said Justice or Justices shall thereupon adjourn the hearing of the case to some future day, unless the defendant waives such adjournment.

113. The forms set forth in the schedules to this Ordinance, or any forms to the like effect, shall be sufficient in the cases thereby respectively provided for; and when no forms are prescribed by the said schedules, they may be framed in accordance with those appended to the Act of the Parliament of Canada which may be cited as "The Summary Convictions Act."

PROCEDURE IN CASES WHERE PREVIOUS CONVICTION IS CHARGED.

114. The proceedings upon any information for committing an offence against any of the provisions of this Ordinance, in a case where a previous conviction or convictions are charged, shall be as follows:

(1) The Justices or Justices shall, in the first instance, inquire concerning such subsequent offence only, and if the accused be found guilty thereof, he shall then, and not before, be asked whether he was so previously convicted, as alleged in the information, and if he answers that he was so previously convicted, he shall be sentenced accordingly; but if he denies that he was so previously convicted, or stands mute of malice, or does not answer directly to such question, the Justice or Justices shall then enquire concerning such previous conviction or convictions.

(2) Such previous convictions may be proved prima facie by the production of a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the convicting Justices or the Clerk of the Court to whose office the conviction has been returned, without proof of signature or official character.

(3) In the event of any conviction for any second or subsequent offence becoming void or defective, after the making thereof, by reason of any previous conviction being set aside, quashed, or otherwise rendered void, the justices or, by whom such second or subsequent conviction was made, shall by summons under their hands, summon the person convicted to appear at a time and place to be named in such summons, and shall thereupon, upon proof of the due service of such summons, if such person fails to appear, or on his appearance, amend such second or subsequent conviction and adjudge such penalty or punishment as might have been adjudged had such previous conviction never existed; and such amended conviction shall thereupon be held valid to all intents and purposes, as if it had been made in the first instance.

(4) In case any person who has been convicted of a contravention of any provision of any of the sections of this Ordinance, mentioned in section 101, is afterwards convicted of an offence against any provision of any of the said sections, such conviction shall be deemed a conviction for a second offence, within the meaning of the said section, and shall be dealt with and punished accordingly, although the two convictions may have been under different sections.

115. A conviction may, in any case, be had as for a first offence, notwithstanding that there may have been a prior conviction or convictions for the same or any other offence.

116. Convictions for several offences may be made under this Ordinance, although such offences may have been committed on the same day; but the increased penalty or punishment hereinbefore imposed shall only be incurred or awarded in the case of offences committed on different days, and after information laid for a first offence.

117. No conviction or warrant for enforcing the same or any other process or proceeding under this Ordinance shall be held insufficient or invalid by reason of any variance between the information and the conviction, or by reason of the punishment imposed, or the conviction or order made being in excess of that which might lawfully have been imposed or made, or by reason of any other defect in form or substance, provided it can be understood from such conviction, warrant, process or proceeding that the same was made for an offence against some provision of this Ordinance within the jurisdiction of the justice or justices who made or signed the same, and provided there is evidence to prove such offence and that it can be understood from such conviction, warrant or process that the appropriate penalty or punishment for such offence was thereby adjudged.

(1) Upon any application to quash any such conviction, or the warrant for enforcing the same, or other process or proceeding, whether in appeal or upon habeas corpus, or by way of certiorari or otherwise, the court or judge to which such appeal is made, or to which such application has been made upon habeas corpus or by way of certiorari, or otherwise, shall dispose of such appeal or application upon the merits, notwithstanding any such variance, excess of jurisdiction, or defect as aforesaid; and in all cases where it appears that the merits have been tried, and that the conviction, warrant, process or proceeding is sufficient and valid under this section or otherwise, and there is evidence to support the same, such conviction, warrant, process or proceeding shall be affirmed, or shall not be quashed (as the case may be); and such court or judge shall in any case amend the same if necessary, and any conviction, warrant, process or proceeding so affirmed or affirmed and amended, shall be enforced in the same manner as convictions affirmed on appeal, and the costs of the application shall be recoverable as if originally awarded.

118. Any person may be prosecutor or complainant under this Ordinance.

119. No License Commissioner or Inspector of Licenses who is a justice shall try or adjudicate upon any complaint for an infraction of any of the provisions of this Ordinance committed within the territorial limits for which he is a Commissioner or Inspector.

120. All the provisions of the Act of the Parliament of Canada, which may be cited as "The Summary Convictions Act," and the Acts already passed, or which may be hereafter passed amending the same, shall apply to all prosecutions and proceedings under this Ordinance, so far as the same are not inconsistent with this Ordinance.

(1) The Justice or Justices shall in all cases reduce or cause to be reduced to writing the evidence of the witness or witnesses examined before him or them, and shall read the same over to the witness or witnesses or cause it so to be read, whereupon such witness shall sign the same: Provided that if any witness is unable to write or refuse to sign the same, the cause or reason shall be noted in writing at the end or foot of such written deposition and attested by the signature of the Justice or Justices.

121. Whenever a licensee is convicted of any offence against the provisions of this Ordinance, a record thereof shall be endorsed on the license of the person convicted, and the following provisions shall have effect, that is to say:—

(1) The Justice or Justices before whom any licensed person is accused shall require such person to produce and deliver to him the license under which such person carries on business and the summons shall state that such production will be required:

(2) If such person is convicted the court shall cause the short particulars of such conviction and the penalty imposed, to be endorsed on his license before it is returned to the offender; and such record shall be prima facie evidence of such conviction, where such is subsequently required:

(3) The Chief Inspector shall enter the particulars respecting such conviction, or such of them as the case may require, in the register of licenses kept by him under this Ordinance, and all Justices shall notify the Chief Inspector in writing of any convictions they have made.

(4) Where the conviction of any such person has the effect of causing the forfeiture of the license or of disqualifying any person for the purposes of this Ordinance, the license shall be forwarded by the Justice or Justices with notice of such forfeiture or disqualification, to the Chief Inspector.

122. The Justices or Justices on any conviction against a licensed person for an offence against this Ordinance, shall send forthwith to the Chief Inspector a certificate of such conviction

123. For the additional duties imposed by the two next preceding sections, the Justice or Justices shall be entitled to charge as costs in the proceedings the following sums:

For making up and forwarding certificate of conviction to the Chief Inspector the sum of fifty cents. For recording the conviction on the license, the sum of fifty cents.

APPEALS.

124. In all cases of prosecution for any offence against any of the provisions of this Ordinance for which any penalty or punishment is prescribed by the ninety-first section of this Ordinance, except as hereinafter mentioned, there shall be no appeal against the conviction or order.

(1) An appeal shall lie from a conviction for any offence for which a penalty or punishment is prescribed by the ninety-first section of this Ordinance to the Judge of the Supreme Court of the judicial district in which the conviction is had, in chambers without a jury, provided a notice in writing of such appeal is given to the prosecutor or complainant within five days after the date of said conviction, subject to the following provisions:

(a) Where the penalty of imprisonment is adjudged, the person convicted, in case he is in custody, shall either remain in custody until the hearing of such appeal before the said judge, or shall enter into a recognizance with two sufficient sureties, in the sum of two hundred dollars ($200) each, before the convicting Justice or Justices, conditioned personally to appear before the said judge, and to prosecute such appeal and abide and satisfy the judgment thereupon, and to pay such costs as the judge may order; and in case the appeal is against a conviction whereby only a fine or penalty of disqualification is imposed, the appellant may, (although the order directs imprisonment in default of payment), instead of remaining in custody as aforesaid, give such recognizance as aforesaid, or may deposit with the Justice or Justices convicting the amount of the penalty and costs, and a further sum of twenty-five dollars to answer the respondent's costs of appeal.

(b) Upon such recognizance being given or deposit made, the Justice or Justices shall liberate such person, if in custody, and shall forthwith deliver or transmit by registered letter, post paid, the depositions and papers in the case, with the recognizance or deposit (as the case may be), to the clerk of the court before which the appeal is to be tried.

125. The practice and procedure upon such appeal, and the proceedings thereon, shall, as nearly as possible, be as follows :

(1) Within ten days after the date of the conviction, but not afterwards, unless it is made to appear to the judge that the delay arose wholly from the default of the convicting Justice or Justices, the judge, if he is of opinion from the evidence that the conviction may be erroneous, may grant a summons calling upon the prosecutor to show cause why the conviction should not be quashed.

(2) Such summons shall not be granted in any case after the expiration of one month from the date of the conviction

(3) Upon the return of the summons the judge, upon hearing the parties, and on considering the evidence returned by the Justice or Justices may make an order affirming, or amending and affirming, or quashing the conviction as he may think just, and may order the payment of costs, and may fix the amount thereof.

(4) Upon the production of the judge's order affirming or amending and affirming the conviction, the Justice or Justices who has or have made the conviction shall, if the case is one in which a recognizance has not been given, issue his or their warrant for payment of such further sum for costs as the sum deposited with him or them is insufficient to pay ; if the conviction is quashed the judge shall order a return of the money deposited, and shall have authority to order payment of such sum for costs as he may tax and allow ; and unless the sum is paid by the complainant, the Justice or Justices shall issue his or their warrant to levy the costs.

(5) If by the conviction it is adjudged that the person convicted should be imprisoned in default of the payment of any penalty, and the conviction is affirmed, or amended deemed broken and the recognizance forfeited, and upon proof of the default being made, by affidavit of the officer or otherwise, the judge may certify the default on the back of the recognizance, and shall thereupon transmit the recognizance to the Clerk of the Court for the judicial district within which the said conviction was had.

(6) Such recognizance shall thereafter be estreated; but such proceeding shall not relieve the person convicted from undergoing the term of imprisonment to which he was sentenced; and the warrant of the judge may be executed in any part of the Territories in the same manner and subject to the like conditions as a warrant of a justice for the apprehension of an offender.

(7) If by the conviction only a money penalty is imposed, the said judge, upon being satisfied, by affidavit or otherwise, that default has been made upon a recognizance given on an appeal in such a case, shall certify in a like manner as is provided in sub-section five of this section, and similar proceedings shall thereupon be had in respect of such recognizance.

(8) In case it is proved to the satisfaction of the judge that the person convicted had previously served a portion of his term, the judge shall only issue his warrant for the commitment of the defendant for the residue of the term of imprisonment to which he was sentenced; the judge may, if he thinks fit, transmit his said warrant to the convicting Justice or Justices in order that he or they may place the same in the hands of a constable for execution.

(9) Any warrant issued under this section may be directed in the same manner and executed by the like officers as a warrant of commitment upon a summary conviction or order.

(10) In all cases of appeal to a judge from any conviction under this Ordinance had before a justice or justices, the judge to whom such appeal is made shall hear and determine the charge or complaint on which such conviction has been had upon the merits, notwithstanding any defects of form or otherwise in such conviction; and if the person charged or complained against is found to have been guilty, the conviction shall be affirmed and the judge shall amend the same if and affirmed, or if the person convicted fails duly to prosecute the appeal, the judge shall issue his warrant for the commitment to the proper jail or other place of imprisonment of the person convicted, and unless such person within one week thereafter surrenders himself into the custody of the constable or other officer entrusted with the execution of the warrant, the condition of the recognizance shall be necessary, and make such other and further order as to the money deposited and costs as may be proper under the circumstances.

(11) No conviction affirmed or amended and affirmed on appeal by the judge shall be quashed for the want of form, and no warrant or commitment shall be held void by reason of any defect therein, provided it is therein alleged that the party has been convicted and there is a good and valid conviction to sustain the same.

(12) In every process and in all proceedings before a judge under this section, the judge shall, with reference to the matters herein contained, have all the powers which belong to or might be exercised by him in the said Supreme Court, or upon any appeal under the provisions of the Act of the Parliament of Canada which may be cited as "The Summary Convictions Act," and the amendments thereto, consistently with the provisions of this Ordinance, and all necessary process may be issued by the clerk of the said court.

(13) There shall be no appeal from the decision of the judge in virtue of the provisions of this and the last preceding section.

126. When not otherwise provided, a third conviction of a licensed person under this Ordinance for any violation or contravention of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall ipso facto operate as a forfeiture of his license, and disqualify the person convicted from obtaining a license for three years thereafter.

127. The penalties in money under this Ordinance, or any portion of them which may be recovered, shall be paid to the convicting justice or justices, and shall by him be forthwith paid to the officer referred to as appointed by the Lieuten-ant-Governor-in-Council.

EVIDENCE, ETC.

128. In any prosecution or proceeding under this Ordinance, in which proof is required respecting any license, a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Chief Inspector shall be prima facie proof of the existence of a license and of the identity of the person to whom the same was granted or transferred; and the production of such certificate shall be sufficient prima facie evidence of the facts therein stated and of the authority of the Chief Inspector, without any proof of his appointment or signature.

129. Any regulation made by the Commissioners shall be sufficiently authenticated by being signed by them, and a copy of such regulation, written or printed, and certified to be a true copy by them, or one of them, shall be deemed authentic, and be received as prima facie evidence in any court of justice without proof of the signature or signatures, unless it is specially pleaded or alleged that the signature or signatures to any such original resolution have been forged, and evidence of such forgery has been adduced, by the person accused, sufficient, in the opinion of the court, to make the proving of the signature or signatures advisable.

130. Any house, shop, room or other place in which it is proved that there exists a bar, counter, beer pumps, kegs, jars, decanters, tumblers, glasses, or any other appliances or preparations similar to those usually found in hotels and shops where liquors are accustomed to be sold or trafficked in, shall be deemed to be a place in which liquors are kept or had for the purpose of being sold, bartered or traded in, in contravention of the eighty-second section of this Ordinance, unless the contrary is proved by the defendant in any prosecution; and the occupant of such house, shop, room or other place shall be taken to be the person who has, or keeps, therein such liquors for sale, traffic or barter therein.

131. In proving the sale or disposal, gratuitous or otherwise, or consumption of liquor, for the purposes of any proceeding relative to any offence under this Ordinance, it shall not be necessary to show that any money actually passed, or any liquor was actually consumed, if the justice or justices hearing the case is or are satisfied that a transaction in the nature of a sale or other disposal actually took place, or that any consumption of liquor was about to take place; and proof of consumption or intended consumption of liquor on premises, in respect to which a license is required under this Ordinance, by some person other than the occupier of the premises, shall be evidence that such liquor was sold to the person consuming, or being about to consume, or carrying away the same, as against the occupant of the said premises.

132. The occupant of any house, shop, room or other place in which any sale, barter or traffic of liquors, or any matter, act or thing in contravention of any of the provisions of this Ordinance, shall be personally liable to the penalty prescribed in the eighty-eighth and ninety-first sections of this Ordinance, as the case may be, notwithstanding such sale, barter or traffic be made by some other person, who cannot be proved to have so acted under or by the directions of such occupant; and proof of the fact of such sale, barter or traffic, or other act, matter or thing, by such person in the employ of such occupant, or who is suffered to remain in or upon the premises of such occupant, or to act in any way for such occupant, shall be conclusive evidence that such sale, barter or traffic, or other act, matter or thing, took place with the authority and by the direction of such occupant.

133. In any prosecution under this Ordinance for the sale or other disposal of liquor without the license required by law, it shall not be necessary that any witness should depose directly to the precise description of the liquor sold or bartered or the precise consideration therefor.

134. In any prosecution under this Ordinance, whenever it appears that the defendant has done any act or been guilty of any omission in respect of which, were he not duly licensed, he would be liable to some penalty under this Ordinance, it shall be incumbent upon the defendant to prove that he is duly licensed.

135. The fact of any person not being a licensed person keeping up any sign, writing, painting or other mark in or near to his house or premises, or having such house fitted up with a bar or other place containing bottles or casks displayed so as to induce a reasonable belief that such house or premises is or are licensed for the sale of any liquor, or that liquor is sold or served therein, or that there is on such premises more liquor than is reasonably required for the persons residing therein, shall be deemed prima facie evidence of the unlawful sale of liquor by such person.

136. The production of a license which on its face purports to be duly issued, and which were it duly issued would be a lawful authority to the defendant for such an act of omission, shall be prima facie evidence that the defendant is so authorized; and in all cases the signature to and upon any instrument purporting to be a valid license shall prima facie be taken to be genuine.

WITNESSES.

137. In any prosecution under this Ordinance the justice or justices trying the case may summon any person represented to him or them as a material witness in relation thereto; and if such person refuses or neglects to attend pursuant to such summons, the justice or justices may issue his or their warrant for the arrest of such person; and he shall thereupon be brought before the justice or justices and if he refuses to be sworn or to affirm, or to answer any question touching the case, he may be committed to the common gaol of the judicial district or to a lock-up, there to remain until he consents to be sworn or to affirm and to answer. (2) The declaration may be made and signed in duplicate, or in as many parts as may be required.

(3) The said declaration may be produced to any Judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories, and if the same appears to him to be in conformity with this Ordinance, he shall endorse thereon a certificate to that effect.

(4) One of the original parts of the declaration shall be filed in the office of the Registrar of the said Supreme Court at Regina and the fee of fifty cents shall accompany such filing.

(5) When these directions shall have been complied with, the persons who signed the declaration shall thereby become, and they, their associates and successors, shall thenceforward be a body corporate and politic, and shall have the powers, rights and immunities vested by law in such bodies.

3. The society so incorporated may from time to time have or establish and maintain any number of branches thereof to promote the objects of the society.

4. The society may from time to time appoint trustees, a treasurer, a secretary and other officers, for conducting its affairs, and for the discipline and management of the society; and may from time to time make by-laws, rules and regulations for the government and for conducting the affairs of the society, or of any branches thereof; and may from time to time alter or rescind such by-laws, rules or regulations.

5. Any two or more societies or branches of a society may unite and form one society, or branch, for the purpose of erecting buildings for the use of the societies or branches, and if they so desire for other purposes, on such terms as may be agreed upon, by authority of a resolution assented to by a majority of the members of each of the said societies or branches proposed to be united; provided that every such resolution is passed at a general meeting of each of the societies or branches concerned in such union, to be specially called for that purpose.

6. A person under the age of twenty-one years, elected or admitted as a member of a society, or appointed to any office therein, shall be liable to the payment of fees and otherwise under the rules of the society as if he were of full age.

7. When under the rules of a society money becomes payable to, or for the use or benefit of, a member thereof, such money shall be free from all claims by the creditors of such member; and when on the death of a member of a society, any sum of money becomes payable under the rules of the society, the same shall be paid by the treasurer or

9. Any such society or branch may from time to time take by gift, devise or bequest, any lands or tenements, or any interests therein, provided such gift, devise or bequest is made at least six months before the death of the person making the same ; but the society or branch shall at no time take by gift, devise or bequest, lands or tenements or any interests therein, the annual value of which, together with that of all other lands and tenements theretofore acquired by like means and then held by the society or branch, exceeds in the whole one thousand dollars ; nor shall the society or branch at any time take, by gift, devise or bequest, lands, tenements or hereditaments the annual value of which, together with all the other real estate of the society or branch, exceeds five thousand dollars ; and no lands or tenements acquired by gifts, devise or bequest, within the limits aforesaid, but not required for the actual use or occupation of the society or branch, shall be held by the society or branch, for a longer period than seven years after the acquisition thereof, and within such period the same shall be absolutely disposed of by the society or branch ; and the society or branch shall have power within

12. No defect of form in the certificate of the Judge, or in the proceedings to which the certificate of the Judge relates, shall effect the validity of the incorporation.

13. To facilitate the proof of a society or branch being an incorporated society or branch under this Ordinance, and to prevent any future question as to the same, the society or branch, after the same has become incorporated as aforesaid, shall be entitled (if the society or branch thinks fit) to receive a certificate of such incorporation in manner hereinafter mentioned ; and the certificate so obtained shall be final and conclusive evidence of the society or branch being an incorporation under this Ordinance unless the certificate, or the order or decision of the Court granting or authorizing the same is reversed or set aside by some direct proceeding taken for the purpose; and the proceedings for the purpose of obtaining the certificate may be as follows:--

(1) The application for the certificate may be made by the society or branch to a Judge of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories.

(2) The application shall be supported by satisfactory evidence that the society or branch is a society or branch within the true intent and meaning of this Ordinance; that the proceedings necessary for incorporation have been duly taken; that four weeks' notice of the intention to apply for a certificate has been given to the Lieutenant-Governor of the Territories; and that a like notice has been published for four weeks in the North-West Territories Gazette; and if the Judge is not satisfied with the evidence offered of these particulars in the first instance, the Judge, instead of dismissing the application, may give an opportunity or opportunities for producing further evidence; and if there is any defect in the proceedings taken to obtain incorporation, the Judge may permit the same to be supplied, and the Judge may, in all cases, require from time to time any further publication to take place, and any other notice to be mailed, served, or given, which the Judge deems necessary.

(3) When the Judge is satisfied that the society or branch is entitled to the certificate, the certificate may be issued by the Clerk of the Court of the Judicial District in which the application is made in duplicate (under his hand and the seal of the Court) or in as many parts as may be required, and the same shall name the day from and at which the incorporation was complete and effectual; and any person shall thereafter be entitled to receive a certificate to the same effect, sealed and signed as aforesaid; which certificate or counterpart thereof shall be final and conclusive, as hereinbefore mentioned.

(4) The Judges of the Supreme Court of the North-West Territories shall have power to regulate the practice and costs in such cases.

14. It shall be the duty of the corporation, when thereunto required by the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council, or by the Legislative Assembly, to furnish a statement of the real property, and of the estates therein held by the society, and to give such details thereof as the Lieutenant-Governor or the Legislative Assembly may from time to time require.

15. When a society, incorporated under the provisions of this Ordinance, is desirous of changing its name, or of changing any of the purposes contained in the original certificate or declaration of incorporation, a Judge of the Supreme Court, upon being satisfied that the change desired is not for an improper purpose, and is not otherwise objectionable, may make an order reciting the certificate and declaration of incorporation and making the change desired.

(2) Such order shall be filed in the office in which the certificate and declaration were filed, and a copy of the order, certified by the Registrar of the Supreme Court at Regina, or his deputy, to be a true copy of the order filed in the said office shall be prima facie evidence of the change having been made as therein set forth.

13. The costs of the appeal shall be in the discretion of the Court to which the appeal is had, and the practice and proceedings upon the appeal shall, except so far as may be by the Judges to whom the appeal is made otherwise provided, be similar to the practice and proceedings upon appeals from Courts of the Judicial Districts of the North-West Territories.

14. The foregoing provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to all such constructions and improvements as may hitherto have been made, as well as to such as may be in course of construction, or shall hereafter be constructed.

15. 16. Nothing in this Ordinance contained shall be construed as interfering with the power or rights of any Company formed under the Act of the Dominion of Canada respecting the incorporation of Joint Stock Companies by letters patent, or under any Ordinance of the Territories.

17. Any person, entitled to vote at any election, shall be entitled to be present at the opening of the voting papers at such election.

18. In case of an equality of votes between two or more persons, which leaves the election of one or more of the members of the Council undecided, then as to the first election, the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly, and as to subsequent elections, the Registrar, in presence of the scrutineers, shall forthwith put into a box a number of papers with the names of the candidates having such equality of votes written thereon, one for each candidate, and the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly as to the first election, and the Registrar of the Council, in the presence of the scrutineers, as to subsequent elections, shall draw by chance from such ballot box one or more of such ballot papers, sufficient to make up the required number, and the persons whose names are upon such papers so drawn shall be such members.

19. The Council of the said Corporation for the time being shall, at their first meeting after the election of the Council, elect from among their members a President, a Vice-President and a Registrar, and such officers as the Council may consider necessary.

(c) Any person complying with Section (4) four of this Ordinance.

22. No names shall be entered in the Register except authorized to be registered, nor unless the Registrar is satisfied by proper evidence that the person claiming is entitled to be registered and any appeal from the decision of the Registrar may be decided by the Council of the Association, and any entry, which shall be proved to the satisfaction of this Council to have been fraudulently or incorrectly made, may be amended or erased in the Register by order of such Council.

23. The Council of the Association shall have authority notwithstanding anything contained in this Ordinance to prescribe the subjects upon which candidates for competency shall be examined and to establish a scale of fees to be paid by persons applying for examination.

24. The Council of the Association shall have the sole control and management of the real and personal property of such Association subject to the by-laws thereof; provided always that no sale or mortgage of any property of the Association shall be made, except with the approbation and concurrence of a general meeting of the members of the said Corporation specially called for such purpose.

25. The Council shall have power to make such by-laws, rules and regulations, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Ordinance, as they shall deem necessary for the carrying out of the objects of the Association, and from time to time may amend, revoke or substitute others in their stead; and such by-laws, rules and regulations may also be amended, altered or repealed, in whole or in part, at any annual general meeting of the Association, provided previous notice be given of the intention so to do, such notice to be given in accordance with the by-laws in force for the time being.

26. Any person registered, and no other, shall be entitled a "Pharmaceutical Chemist;" and no other person except a Pharmaceutical Chemist as aforesaid, or his employee or employees, shall be authorized to compound prescriptions of legally authorized or other medical practitioners or of other persons; but no person shall be entitled to take part in any of the proceedings of the said Association, who is in default in respect to any fee payable by him by virtue hereof.

27. Upon any person being registered as aforesaid, he shall be entitled to receive a certificate in the form C, in Section 36 hereof, or to the like effect, under the corporate seal of the said Association, and signed by the Registrar and shall be entitled to receive a similar certificate annually, upon payment of a fee to be determined by the Council.

28. From and after the coming into effect of this Ordinance it shall be unlawful for any person to keep open shop for retailing, dispensing or compounding poisons, other than those contained in Form D, or to assume the title "Chemist and Druggist" or "Pharmaceutical Chemist" or "Druggist," or "Pharmacist," or "Apothecary," or "Dispensing Chemist (Druggist)" in any part of the North-West Territories, unless such person shall be a member of the Association hereby incorporated.

29. The several articles named or described in Forms A and D in Section 36 hereof shall be deemed to be poisonous within the meaning of the provisions hereof and the Council of the Association may from time to time by resolution declare that any article in such resolution named ought to be deemed a poison within the meaning hereof; and thereupon the said Association shall submit the same to the approval of His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council; and if such approval shall be given then such resolution and approval shall be advertised in the North-West Territories Gazette and on the expiration of two months from such advertisement the article named in such resolution shall be deemed to be "poison" within the meaning hereof and the same shall be subject to the provisions herein contained.

30. It shall be unlawful to sell any poison named in the first part of Form A, either by wholesale or retail, unless the bottle, vessel, wrapper or cover in which such poison is contained be distinctly labelled with the name of the article and the word "Poison;" and if sold by retail, then also with the name and address of the establishment in which such poison is sold; and it shall be unlawful to sell any poison mentioned in the first part of Form A to any person unknown to the seller, unless introduced by some person known to the seller; and on every sale of such article, the person actually selling the same shall, before delivery, make an entry in a book to be kept for that purpose in the Form B in Section 36 hereof, stating the date of such sale, the name and address of the purchaser, the name and quantity of the article sold, the purpose for which it is stated by the purchaser to be required, and the name of the person, if any, who introduced him, to which entry the signature of the purchaser shall be affixed.

(1) Provided also, that any person selling the drugs mentioned in Form D shall also comply with the provisions of this Section.

31. Any person transgressing any of the provisions herein contained, or selling any poison in violation thereof, shall, for the first offence, incur a penalty not exceeding one hun-

32. In any prosecution hereunder it shall be incumbent on the defendant to prove that he is entitled to sell or keep open shop for compounding medicines or retailing poisons and to assume the title of Chemist and Druggist or other like title to the like effect; and the production of a certificate purporting to be under the hand of the Registrar and under the seal of the said Association showing that he is so entitled shall be prima facie evidence that he is so entitled.

33. No person selling articles in violation of the foregoing provisions shall recover any charges in respect thereof in any Court of Law or Equity, nor shall any branch drug business be carried on by a Pharmaceutical Chemist, unless he employs in it a duly registered Pharmaceutical Chemist.

34. Nothing herein contained shall extend to interfere with the privileges conferred upon Physicians and Surgeons by any Ordinance relating to the practice of Medicine and Surgery in the North-West Territories, and they may be registered as Pharmaceutical Chemists without undergoing examination; nor shall it prevent any person whatever from selling goods of any kind to any person legally authorized to carry on the business of an Apothecary, Chemist or Druggist or the profession of a Doctor of Medicine, Physician or Surgeon, nor to Veterinary Surgeons; nor to prevent the members of such professions applying to their patients such medicine as they may require; and upon the decease of any person legally authorized and actually carrying on the business of Chemist and Druggist at the time of his death, it shall be lawful for the executors, administrators or trustee or trustees of the estate of such persons to continue such business so long only as such business shall be bona fide conducted by a Pharmaceutical Chemist.

35. Upon the resolution of the Council of the Association being passed declaring that any person, in consequence of his conviction for any offence or offences against the provisions hereof, is, in the opinion of such Council, unfit to be on the register, the Lieutenant-Governor-in-Council may

The Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Territories, enacts as follows:—

1. Chapter 19 of The Revised Ordinances, 1888, entitled "An Ordinance respecting Brands" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words: "The Lieutenant-Governor shall have the power to alter, by proclamation, the boundaries of any existing stock district, by adding thereto or taking therefrom."

NO. 24 OF 1891-92.

AN ORDINANCE TO AMEND AND CONSOLIDATE
AS AMENDED THE ORDINANCES RESPECTING THE HERDING OF ANIMALS.[Assented to January 25th, 1892.]

The Lieutenant-Governor, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Assembly of the Territories, enacts as follows :—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as "The Herd Ordinance."

2. Upon application as in Form "A" in the Appendix to this Ordinance, signed by two-thirds of the male occupants of lands resident for three months, over eighteen years of age, of any district not less than one hundred and forty-four square miles, the said application being verified on oath before a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public as in Form "B" in the Appendix to this Ordinance, the Lieutenant-Governor may by order erect such district into a herd district, to be under the operation of the provisions of this Ordinance, (no reasonable objection being raised thereto), provided that a notice in the Form "C" in the Appendix hereto, or to the like effect, of the intention to make such application, has been posted in at least one conspicuous place in each township or fraction of township constituting the proposed herd district, three weeks next preceding the application being made to the Lieutenant-Governor, and provided such application is accompanied with the sum of six dollars to cover the cost of publication in the Official Gazette of the Territories.

3. Such order shall fix a date, such date not being later than fourteen days from the date of the order, from and after which the provisions of this Ordinance shall apply to the districts so created, and shall also state the time or times in each year within which the provisions of Section 7 of this Ordinance shall apply and such order shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Territories.

4. A majority of the male occupants of lands, over eighteen years of age, resident within any herd district for at least three months next preceding the date of application may at any time apply to the Lieutenant-Governor to alter the time or times in each year within which the provisions of Section 7 of this Ordinance shall apply to such Herd District (the sufficiency of such application to be verified on oath before a Justice of the Peace or a Notary Public) and the Lieutenant-Governor may thereupon order that the provisions of said last mentioned Section shall apply within such herd district within the time or times in each year mentioned in such application and such order shall fix a date not later than fourteen days from the date thereof from and after which the same shall take effect and shall be published forthwith in the Official Gazette of the Territories.

5. Upon an application signed by two-thirds of those qualified as aforesaid in any section of country proposed to be added to an existing herd district, or of any section of country proposed to be withdrawn from the operation of the provisions of this Ordinance, verified under oath as aforesaid, and advertised as aforesaid and accompanied by a sum of money as aforesaid, the Lieutenant-Governor may by order add such section of country to such existing herd district, or withdraw such section of country from the operation of the provisions of this Ordinance, as the case may be, and such order shall fix a date, (such date not being later than fourteen days from the date of the order), from and after which it shall come into force, and such order shall be published in the Official Gazette of the Territories.

6. The Lieutenant-Governor, for the purposes of this Ordinance, may appoint in any herd district one or more poundkeepers for impounding animals distrained under this Ordinance, and in every such appointment the place where such pound is to be kept shall be defined.

7. The owner or occupier of any land within any such herd district may, subject to the provisions of the next following Section hereof and within the time or times in each year therein provided in relation to such district, distrain all animals doing damage upon his cultivated lands or stacks of grain or hay, and when any such distress is made the distrain-or may keep and properly feed such animals in some secure place other than the public pound until his damages are appraised, or he may at once impound the same, notifying the pound-keeper that damages are, or are not, claimed and if claimed the amount thereof.

8. The provisions of the next preceding Section hereof shall apply and the right of distress therein mentioned shall be exercised only within the times hereinafter mentioned that is to say :—

(a.) In any herd district created before the passing of this Ordinance in respect of which no order made under the provisions of Section 4 of this Ordinance is in force, between the 15th day of May and the 31st day of October in each year ;

(b) In any herd district created under the provisions of this Ordinance in respect of which no order made under the provisions of said Section 4 is in force, within the time or times specified in the order creating such district ;

(c) In any herd district in respect of which an order made under the provisions of said Section 4 is in force, within the time or times specified in the last of such orders relating to such district.

9. Such distress shall be made at any time before such animals doing damage as aforesaid escape from such lands or while followed and kept in sight by the party sustaining damages, or by any person being on the said land at the time such damage is done, and without regard to the sufficiency of the fence thereon.

10. As soon as practicable after such distress, if damages are claimed, the distrainer shall in writing, stating the number and kind of animals distrained and the amount of damages claimed, and whether impounded or not, and, if impounded, the name of the poundkeeper, notify the owner of the animal so distrained, if known to the distrainer, and if such owner does not, within twelve hours after receiving such notice, pay the damages claimed by the distrainer, they shall immediately appoint two arbitrators under the provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance of 1891-92 to appraise such damages, or in case the owner of the animal is not known the distrainer shall at once appoint one arbitrator and apply to a Justice of the Peace to appoint a second arbitrator, who shall then together proceed under the provisions of the Arbitration Ordinance of 1891-92; such arbitrators shall each receive as compensation for their services, two dollars for making the appraisal and five cents per mile as mileage in going to and returning from the place where the damages are sustained, to be paid, in the first instance, by the distrainer, the distance travelled by the arbitrators and their fees to be made part of the returns of said arbitrators.

11. The arbitrators shall, immediately after their appointment, notify in writing the distrainer and such owner, if known, of the time when they shall meet to make the appraisal, and proceed to the place and view the damages done, and they may take the evidence of any person of the facts or circumstances necessary to enable them to ascertain the extent of such damage, and for this purpose the arbitrators, or either of them, are authorized to administer an oath to every such witness.

12. The arbitrators shall ascertain, and certify under their hands, the amount of such damage, with fees for their services as aforesaid. But such fees shall not be chargeable to the owner of the said animals so distrained if the amount of such appraisal is less by one-sixth than the amount of damages claimed by the owner in the first instance.

13. Within twenty-four hours, Sunday excepted, after the damages are so appraised, and the animals distrained have not been impounded, unless the amount of the damages and fees, for which the owner is liable, are paid or tendered to the distrainer, he shall cause the same to be put in the nearest pound in the same district, there to remain until the same are sold as hereinafter directed, or until the damages and the fees for which the owner is liable, and costs of keeping such animals, together with the poundkeeper's fees are paid, and if such animals are put in any pound, the distrainer shall deliver the certificate of the arbitrators to the keeper of such pound, and also a statement in writing, showing in detail the charges for keeping said animals.

14. The poundkeeper shall receive, keep and properly feed the animals so delivered to him in the public pound, and, if the owner be known, shall within ten days sell such animals, or so many of them as are necessary, at public auction, giving at least six days' notice of such sale, by posting the same at such pound and at three of the most public places in the district.

15. If the owner of any animal impounded be unknown the poundkeeper shall cause to be posted forthwith in at least three of the most public places in the district and to be inserted in the newspaper published nearest to his pound a notice of such impounding describing, as near as possible, all the marks natural and artificial, color and probable age of such animal and if, after the expiration of twenty days from the first publication of such notice in such newspaper, all the damages and fees for which such animal is liable, (including poundkeeper's fees and expenses of keeping such animal and the costs and expenses of the publication of such notices) are not fully paid and satisfied, the poundkeeper shall proceed to sell said animal by public auction giving at least ten days notice of the time and place of such sale by notice describing, in the manner aforesaid, the animal, published in such nearest newspaper and posted up in at least three of the most public places in the district.

16. From the proceeds of such sale the poundkeeper shall retain sufficient to pay his fees, the costs and expenses of advertising and the cost of keeping such animal, and he shall pay to the distrainor a sum sufficient to pay the damages as certified by the appraisers and the costs and expenses of making the appraisement, if such sum is due the distrainor, and if there is any surplus, the same shall be paid to the owner of such animal, if known, and if no owner appears at the time of such sale or within one week thereafter, and claims such surplus, the same shall be paid to the Lieutenant-Governor.

17. The Lieutenant-Governor shall pay such surplus money, if claimed within one year after the distress, to the owner of such animals, but if not claimed within that time such surplus money shall be applied to the General Revenue Fund of the Territories.

PREAMBLE TO CONSTITUTION.

IN THE NAME OF GOD. AMEN.

Whereas at a regular meeting of the Provincial Synod of the Church of England in Rupert's Land, held in Winnipeg, on 12th August, in the year of Our Lord 1887, the following Resolution was unanimously adopted in both Houses, viz.:

"That the civil Territory of Alberta be formed into a separate Diocese from the rest of the Diocese of Saskatchewan, to be called the Diocese of Calgary, subject to the consent of the Archbishop of Canterbury to the appointment of the present Bishop of Saskatchewan, on his choosing either the Diocese of Calgary, or the Diocese consisting of the remaining portion of the Diocese of Saskatchewan, which shall continue to be known as the Diocese of Saskatchewan, to be Bishop of the other Diocese until such time as in the opinion of the Provincial Synod an adequate endowment is provided, or other sufficient provision is made for the Bishopric of Calgary, when the Bishop shall resign either of the Dioceses as he sees fit."

And whereas, the Bishop of Saskatchewan did, by instrument under his hand and seal bearing date February 21st, 1888, and addressed to the Most Reverend the Bishop of Rupert's Land, Metropolitan of Rupert's Land, give his formal consent to the division of the Diocese of Saskatchewan, and did express his willingness to be Bishop also of the See of Calgary until such time as in the opinion of the Provincial Synod adequate endowment is provided or other sufficient provision is made for the said Bishopric of Calgary, and on the understanding that on the expression of such opinion by the Provincial Synod he would resign either the Diocese of Saskatchewan or the Diocese of Calgary as at the time he should see fit;

And whereas, His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury gave his consent to the formation of the said See in the following terms :

“ Edward White, by Divine Providence, Archbishop of Canterbury, Primate of all England, and Metropolitan to our well beloved brother in Christ, the Right Reverend Cyprian, Bishop of Saskatchewan, in the Ecclesiastical Province of Rupert's Land, Greeting :

“ Whereas by the Constitution of the Church of England in Rupert's Land it was (amongst other things) provided that the four Dioceses of the Church of England in the Province of Manitoba and the North-West Territories of Canada, known as the Dioceses of Rupert's Land, Moosonee, Saskatchewan and Athabasca, the limits of which were defined in the Canon of the Synod of Rupert's Land, in one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three, should form an Ecclesiastical Province, to be called the Province of Rupert's Land, and it was also provided that the Provincial Synod might subdivide any of the then existing Dioceses, when it should appear necessary, provided that the Bishop of the Diocese consented, and that the Bishop should choose which portion of the divided Diocese he should retain, and the appointment of a Bishop of the other portion should rest with the Archbishop of Canterbury unless there should be within the limits of the said portion at least twelve clergymen who should be supported either by endowment or by their congregations, in which case a Synod should be called together, and the said Synod should elect a Bishop in such manner as the constitution of the undivided Diocese might direct; And whereas, by a resolution passed at the fourth Provincial Synod of the said Province of Rupert's Land, held at Winnipeg on the tenth, eleventh and twelfth days of August, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven, it was resolved that the civil territory of Alberta should be formed into a separate Diocese from the rest of the Diocese of Saskatchewan, to be called the Diocese of Calgary, subject to the consent of the Archbishop of Canterbury to the appointment of the then present Bishop of Saskatchewan, on his choosing either the Diocese of Calgary, or the Diocese consisting of the remaining portion of the Diocese of Saskatchewan, (which shall continue to be known as the Diocese of Saskatchewan) to be Bishop of the other Diocese, until such time as in the opinion of the Provincial Synod an adequate endowment should be provided for the Bishopric of Calgary, when the Bishop should resign either of the Dioceses as he should see fit. And whereas you have signified to us that you consent to such division of the Diocese of Saskatchewan; that you choose that portion of your present Diocese of Saskatchewan, which after the division shall continue to be known as the Diocese of Saskatchewan; and that you are willing to be Bishop also of the See of Calgary, until such time as, in the opinion of the Provincial Synod, adequate endowment is provided or other sufficient provision is made for the said Bishopric of Calgary, and on the understanding that on the expression of such opinion by the Provincial Synod you shall resign either the Diocese of Saskatchewan or the Diocese of Calgary as at the time you shall see fit. And whereas it has been certified to us that there are not within the limits of the said portion, to be called the Diocese of Calgary, twelve clergymen who are supported either by endowment or by their congregations; And whereas it appears to us that the arrangement which was proposed in the said Resolution of the said Synod should be carried out.

Now therefore we the said Archbishop of Canterbury do hereby appoint you the said Cyprian, Bishop of Saskatchewan to be Bishop of the said Diocese of Calgary, and we do invest you with all the power and authority ordinary and episcopal within the limits of the same.

In Witness whereof we have hereunto set our hand and caused our Archiepiscopal Seal to be hereunto affixed.

Given at our Palace of Lambeth this twenty-seventh day of March, in the year of our Lord, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-eight, and of our translation the sixth.

Signed,

Edw. Cantuar."

And whereas the Constitution of the Church of England in Rupert's Land provides for each Diocese having a Diocesan Synod; and whereas we the Bishop, Clergy and

1. The members of said Association and such other persons as shall hereafter become members thereof, shall be and are hereby declared to be a body politic and corporate, in deed and in name, by the name of "The Assiniboia Club," and by that name shall have perpetual succession and a common seal, and shall have power, from time to time, and at all times hereafter, to be able and capable to purchase, acquire, hold, possess and enjoy, and to have, take and receive to them and their successors, to and for the actual use and occupation of the said Corporation, any lands, tenements, hereditaments, and real and immovable property and estate, situate, lying and being within the said town of Regina, and the same to sell, alienate, exchange, and otherwise dispose of, whensoever the said Corporation may deem it proper so to do ; and by the same name shall and may be able and capable to sue and be sued, implead and be impleaded, answer and be answered unto in any manner whatsoever

2. The constitution, rules and regulations now in force, touching the admission and expulsion of members, and the management and conduct generally of the affairs and concerns of the said Association, in so far as they may not be inconsistent with the laws in force in the North-West Territories, shall be the constitution, rules and regulations of the said Corporation: Provided always, that the said Corporation may, from time to time, alter, repeal and change such constitution, rules and regulations in the manner provided by the constitution, rules and regulations of the said Corporation.

3. All property and effects now owned by, or held in trust for, the said Association, are hereby vested in the said Corporation, and shall be applied solely for the use and maintenance of the said Corporation.

4. The said Corporation may, from time to time, borrow money, not to exceed in the whole the sum of twenty-five thousand dollars ($25,000.00), at such rate of interest and upon such terms as they may think proper; and may for such purpose make, execute or issue any mortgages, bonds, debentures or other instruments, under the seal of the said Corporation; which bonds or debentures shall operate, subject to any mortgage given in part payment of the purchase money for real property bought for a site for the club buildings, as mortgages and charges against the lands and effects of the said Corporation without registration; and each holder of any of the said debentures or bonds issued under this Section shall be deemed to be a mortgagee and incumbrancer pro rata with the other holders thereof upon any interest in any real estate held by the said Corporation, and also upon any such interest in a policy or policies of insurance against loss or damage by fire effected upon the buildings owned by the Corporation.

5. Any such mortgage, bond, debenture or other instrument shall be signed by the President of the said Corporation and countersigned by the Secretary.

6. The interest of the debentures to be issued under Section 4 of this Ordinance shall be a first charge upon the entrance fees from new members entering said Association; and it shall be the duty of the committee in each year, out of the said entrance fees, in so far as the same shall extend, to pay the whole interest falling due in each year

7. The moneys authorized to be raised by debentures under the provisions of Section 4 of this Ordinance shall be applied exclusively in the purchase of a site for the club buildings, and in the purchase, improvement or erection of a club house and dependencies thereon, together with necessary furniture, or for the purchase of any freehold interest therein, and in the payment of any mortgage or charge thereon, and for the redemption of the said debentures and any re-issues as they become due respectively from time to time and at all times.

8. No member of the Corporation shall be in any way liable for or chargeable with the payment of any debt or demand due by the said Corporation beyond the extent of the entrance fee and annual subscriptions remaining unpaid by the said member, and for any unpaid accounts he may have incurred to the Corporation for articles ordered by him in said club. And any member of the said club, not so indebted to the said Corporation, may retire therefrom, and will cease to be a member on giving notice to that effect in such form as may be required by the constitution, rules and regulations of the said club, and thenceforth shall be free from liability for any debt or engagement of the club.

9. The said Corporation shall have power to draw, make, accept and endorse all bills of exchange and promissory notes necessary for the purposes of the said Corporation, under the hands of their President and Secretary, after authority from the committee of the said Corporation so to do; and in no case shall it be necessary that the seal of the Corporation be affixed to any such bill or note, nor shall the President or Secretary be individually responsible therefor; provided that nothing herein contained shall be construed to authorize the Club to issue notes or bills of exchange payable to bearer, or intended to be circulated as money, or as notes, or bills of a bank.

10. Notwithstanding anything hereinbefore contained, the said Corporation shall have power to rent any portions of the real estate held by the said Corporation, upon such terms and for such period as may be agreed upon.
